ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

#. This Court, on 17th February, 1999, admitted this writ petition and by way of interim relief, the respondents were directed to consider the representation dated 20th March, 1997 filed by the petitioner and to place the decision taken on that representation on the record of this special civil application.

#. The learned counsel for the respondents stated that the respondents could not avail of that order of this Court, otherwise, there would not have been any occasion or reason with the respondents not to comply with the same.

#. Be that as it may, this special civil application is disposed of in terms that the representation of the petitioner dated 20th March 1997 should be decided by respondents within a period of two months from today and in case the grievance made by the petitioner therein is not acceptable, a reasoned order may be passed and a copy of the same may be sent to the petitioner by registered post A.D. Where the petitioner desires for personal hearing, it is expected from the respondents to give personal hearing also before passing the order. The special civil application and Rule stand disposed of in aforesaid terms with liberty to the petitioner for revival of this special civil application in case of difficulty.
